

THE YELLOW JACKET

1954

Annette
you are one of the sweetest, friendliest girls I know.

It really has been fun. I just hope you have enjoyed our friendship
as much as I have.

Back to the future!

Love,
Annette

Lot's of luck to a wonderful girl.
Always stay as sweet
as you are now.
Helen Carson

To Annette - a real cutie kid.
Best of luck always
Bill Mollie

Annette -
Best wishes to a gal
that does the best of everything.
Carol Norman

It's really been nice knowing you.
I may live your the best of everything.
Love,
Pam

Good Luck;
 Is one of the best and sweetest girls I have known.
 May good deeds and luck follow
 you through your life.
 Dennis M. Elhammory
 5/4

Dear Annette -
 It's been a real pleasure knowing you. I'll see you next year
 at T.C.U. Always be sweet like you are now.
 Ray Lockman

Lots of luck
 to a swell girl who has always answered my questions in chem.

Annetta,
 This English class has been the unhappiest one I have ever been in, but listening to you & the other smart ones has made it a lot more fun. I hope that someday we will have as good grades as you do.
 Larry Pound

As seniors we will probably see little of each other in the future. It seems appropriate to say that I have truly enjoyed your friendship and will never forget it

Darrell
 Working across from you in Chem. has been a lot of fun.
 Always stay as cheery as your grades are now.

Love,
 Mary Lynn
 Gordon

Annette,
 you are a very sweet person. I think Mike is a doll. I hope you will have a lot of happiness
 in the coming years.

 Brett
 Chelland

Dear Annette,
 I hope you are having a great time. I will see you next year.
 Love,
 Dennis M. Elhammory

Annette - Now that we are soon to graduate, the sad truth presents itself - that we shall probably follow very different paths. However, it is my greatest wish that our friendship will not languish, and that the six years we've shared together will continue to be a source of mutual enjoyment.

Robert Langbridge

Annette - you're a swell gal & have a much-used friendly smile. Best of luck in the future.
Love,
Martha Connolly

Annette,
English has brought us close but your friendship has been great.
Always,
Bob Smith

DEDICATION...

A Champion Trains Champions

"Not failure but low aim is crime"

With this philosophy from Lowell, she has guided the students of AHHS to state and national awards and has inspired them to serve as tomorrow's journalists.

In recognition of the high standards she has set for our school publications and in appreciation of her tireless efforts to inspire us, the staff, without her knowledge, gratefully dedicates this 1954 Yellow Jacket to

HILL'S BUSY SCRIBES

I knew it all the time! Delving into the JJ file, Marjorie Creswell and Joan Gardner uncover lost copy.

Sizing up the situation is Colleen Moss, Yellow Jacket editor.

Combing the West Side for JJ ads, Alice Evans, Tommy Woody, Sara Sprinkle, Donald Bartlett, Pat Taylor, and Sammy Craig prepare for the next edition.

"And this is the way it's done," explains Marjorie Creswell, JJ editor.

It's deadline time and Marianne Cherry, Gene Smith, and Gail Norris seem to have plenty of verbal assistance from Gerry Garlington, Mikell Murphy, and Kent Schott.

Exchange cubby-holes seem to be interesting to Earl Ramsey, Tommy Woody and Edith Hamlett.

A miss is as good as a mile when drawing up layouts for the annual agree Kay Rodgers, Nancy Nelson, Anne Stalnaker, and Dan Coates.

Checking and double checking copy is a time consuming job for the "Big Boss" Miss Gussie Burnett.

Duhhhhhhhhhhh ! Work, Work everywhere and I've got nothing to do! says Kent Schott.

Stick to business, Flora Lou . . . your helpers, Eddie Runyon, Dick Gannett, and Marcia Miller are waiting.

TO THE STUDENTS . . .

As we approach the end of another school year, it is a pleasure to commend you again for your continued efforts to build a school tradition based on the highest standards. Your cooperation, loyalty, and achievement have made this school year a memorable one.

In years to come as you turn the pages of this record of 1953-54, we hope you will be reminded of these lines which you have sung so many times . . .

*"And wherever we may roam
We will always call it home.
It's the place we love the best,
Dear old A.H.H.S."*

FACULTY

Arlington Heights' faculty, numbering forty-five, more than adequately provide instruction in languages, history, science, and mathematics for the more than nine hundred students, as well as instruction in specialized courses, such as shop, distributive education, art, and others. With degrees ranging from B.A.'s to Ph.D.'s, these teachers instill in their students the importance of an education in relation to taking their places in our great democracy.

DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

Preparing Jackets for the business world is the job of the Commercial Department.

English students learn of the dress, customs, and history of the world's literature.

Harmony is the key for Heights musicians.

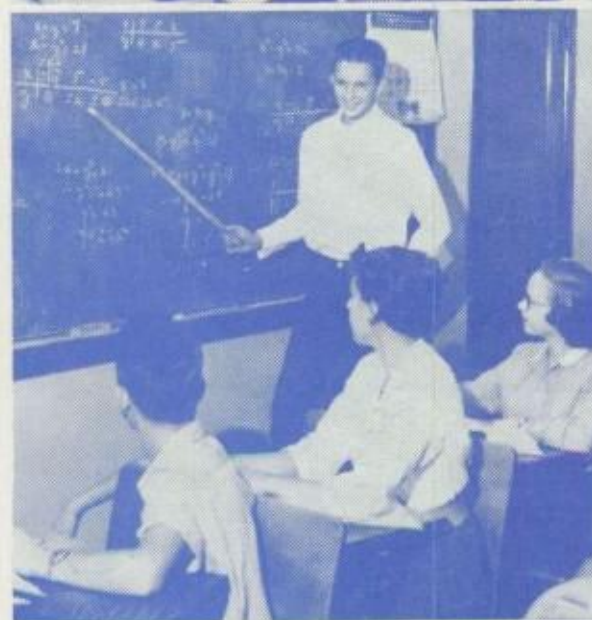

Science opens a whole new word for various Heightsters.

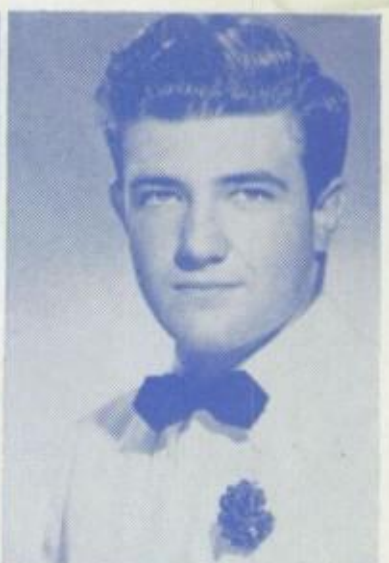

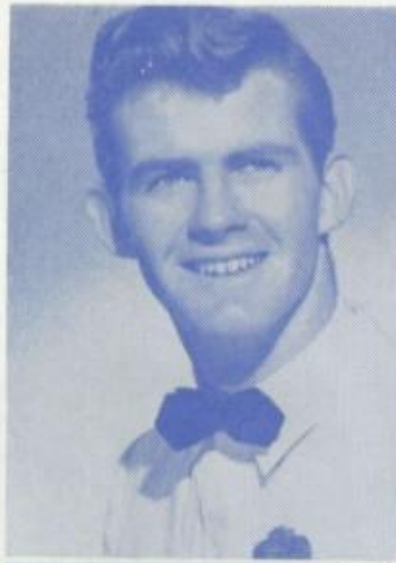

Mathematics gives the student an opportunity to "think for himself."

The Atomic Age calls for an understanding of our foreign neighbors' languages.

DE'ers prove "experience is the best teacher."

Aspiring architects and constructionists get a sound foundation in Mechanical Drawing.

Glorious Homecoming

Ingenious ideas and hard work combined to give Mr. Arthur Truitt's homeroom first place honors.

Percy's unhappy and who'd blame him? Being ignored by Judy and Carol is no fun.

Cheerleaders keep busy doing a big job on the big day.

No, it's not a stick up—just patriotic Jackets at a pep rally.

Righto, Johnny! You've got the idea!

Exes swarm to their old stomping grounds.

Martha Leonard and Don Kennard officially proclaim Georgia Wall Homecoming Queen.

Mignon Bevil, Sterling Arntzen, and Nancy Borden admire the new Jacket hero.

Clubs

'A' Club

Lettermen Turn Salesmen

Arlington Heights' lettermen turned salesmen this spring as they plied their skill at selling gold and blue AHHS scarves, T-shirts and shorts to the student body.

Members of the 'A' Club also sponsored a coke booth at the AY party, a hay ride, and a variety show.

Sponsored by N. J. Hogan, head football coach, the club promoted good will among athletes, upheld the honor of the school and the blue and gold award, and strove for better scholastic standing.

Officers for 1953-54 are Norman Ashley, Mike Neely, Ronny White, and Jack Newsome.

MEMBERS

First Row: Sandra Thomas, Judy Dailey, Paula Hill, Usleta Casey, Ida Mae McDowell, Rochelle Hussey, Teddy Collins. Second Row: Don Messick, Edwin Kahler, Larry Ricker, Jack Turner, T. J. Hare, Dan Coates, Miss Eula Hunter, sponsor. Third Row: Rich Rowan, Tommy Robinson, Robert Carson, Darrell Cooper, Carl Bennett, Pat Rich.

Future Teachers

Teachers Plan For 'Wee Ones'

With an eye toward the future, making ready for the bumper crop of little ones storming the school-rooms in a few years, the forty members of the Eula Hunter Chapter of the Future Teachers of America Club laid plans for a year packed with fun and information.

Fun came in the form of an all-city picnic while information rolled in from many sources. An annual FTA convention at Denton, TCU clinic, and varied programs every meeting supplied ideas and inspiration for the aspiring school "marms" and "masters" of tomorrow.

Officers are Ann Davis, Jan Ogletree, Ida Mae McDowell, and Marianne Dannenfeler. Miss Eula Hunter and Mr. Harry Wylie are co-sponsors.

First Row: Doris Sullivan, Jennie Lou Gallegly, Claudia Miller, Nan Hofer, Lynne Ocone, Billie Welsh, Joan Roberts, Scotty Stewart, Shirley Griffith. Second Row: Morris Brazzil, Gerry Grantges, Kenneth McDonald, Don Culbertson, Beverly Walker, Nora Carr, Alice Wells, Edith Bridges, Sue Wilson. Third Row: Eddie Lowrey, Barbara Dorminy, Frances Warfield, Marilyn Leith, Jean Parker, Miss Galen Porter, sponsor, Ralph Harris, Virginia Daughety, Faye Morton, Pat Paden, Peggy Shuffield.

Distributive Education

DE'ers Make Education Pay

Attending school half day and then buzzing off to various jobs all over the city, industrious DE club members earn money while getting that ever-so-necessary experience for future business lives.

Highlighting their after hours were the all-city picnic last fall and the Christmas Party. Claudia Miller reigned as club sweetheart during the year.

Nora Carr, Virginia Daughety, and Beverly Walker represented Heights at the annual DE convention in Galveston.

Leading the club through the busy year were Ralph Harris, Marilyn Leith, Beverly Walker, Nora Carr, and Miss Galen Porter, sponsor.

Cub Reporters

Cubs Test New Noses

Spruce up your sniffers and make like hounds! That's what sponsor Miss Gussie Burnett tells Cub Reporters as she tries to develop a "nose for news" in each one.

First the Cubs learned about the great "news noses" of the past. Then, with movies, quizzes, and discussions, the scribes of the future learned the fascinating game of sniffing out news.

Then, watch your words. A slip today may be a quip tomorrow in the Jacket Journal, for the Cubs have taken over "We the Pupils."

Club officers of these new news noses include: Margaret Scarborough, Ann Livingston, Kay King, and Fran Newman.

Footlighters

'54 Drama Tops the List

TIME: Fall, 1953.

ACTION: The play unfolds as the first club meeting of the Jacket Footlight Players begins with Joan Van Orden presiding and Lee Cox, Mary Allen, and Jan Goodman assisting.

SCENE I: October finds members working building sets, rehearsing, spending money and selling tickets for their December production.

SCENE II: The curtain rises on "Three Bees in a Bonnet", December 9, 7:32 p.m. and to spotlight the evening, Pat Hyde entertains the members at her home from 10 'til—.

SCENE III: Climaxing the play, spring finds the players diving into plans for "Unto Us the Living" and further ideas for fall of '54.

'Who'm I?' Is Club Theme

"Identify me" was the theme of the AHHS Library Club this year. The 12 girls in the club took turns impersonating some book or character at meetings.

These junior librarians were kept busy during the year. Arlington Heights was host to the district Teen Age Library Association convention in November. Mrs. Luella Higley, sponsor, was district sponsor.

Suzy Simpson, president of the district and the Heights club, Ann Parnell, veep, and Mrs. Higley attended the state convention in San Antonio and appeared on the program.

Other officers for the '53-54 term were Sue Guffey and Susie Allen.

First Row: Terry Smith, Ruth Perry, Diane Smith, Barbara Thompson, Jerry Barnett, Mikell Murphy, Edith Hamlett, Rita Reutlehuber, Martha Bennison. Second Row: Jimmy Bourn, Norman Cole, Bob Van Orden, Jerrell Baldrige, Donald Stahl, Emmitt Crawford, Bill Meadows. Third Row: Mr. Flavin Arseneau, sponsor, John Davis, Edward Brown, Jimmie Packer, Paul Wilson, Richard Smith, Tommy Eckols, George Burkett.

Science Club

Scientists Work for Civitan

With a high heart, the Science Club started out the year ready to show the world that AHHS really deserved the coveted purple ribbon awarded each year to the winner of the Civitan Contest.

The junior scientists worked long and hard preparing exhibits which varied all the way from blood smears and mounted skeletons, to moon observations and a revealing survey on student frustrations.

Leading the industrious members were Jimmy Bourn, Richard Smith, Rita Reutlehuber, Emmitt Crawford, and Mr. Flavin Arseneau, sponsor.

The addition of a radio transmitter and receiving set made Heights the best equipped club in the city. Energy combined with knowledge made it the most successful.

Rod and Gun

Hunters, Fishers Learn 'How'

"Wow! You should have seen the one that got away!" This was the familiar slogan at the Rod and Gun Club's fishing trip last fall at Lake Whitney.

A skeet shoot was on the club's list of spring activities. Regular meetings find the boys studying the correct use and care of their hunting and fishing equipment.

Officers for the spring term were Earle Haley, Tommy McIlheran, Jack McCrary, Kent Tilbury, Edward Halsell, and Chester Davis.

Frankie Ballinger presided over the fall meetings, with Jim Lamb, Bill McClure, Dick Thompson, and David Ryan assisting.

AHHS Girls Give Service to Needy, Stimulate Friendship

Guided by the three points of their symbol, the triangle, Y-Teens have moved forward this year stimulating city-wide friendship among high school girls.

Throwing out the window the scientific fact that you can't be in two places at once, Heights Y-Teens chapter was able to answer many needs during the year. Different teams worked hard at service projects varying from lending a helping hand at Babyland and the Children's Hospital to making scrapbooks and collecting toys for needy children.

Officers of Y-Teens, a high school branch of the YWCA, are Betty Staples, Joyce Lee, Mary Sue Miller, Maureen Denman, Ann Winslow, and Kay Taylor. Co-sponsors are Mrs. Mary White and Mrs. Elva Lerret.

Junior Historians

Club Members Map Early Cowtown, Enter Contest

One original map of Fort Worth in 1876 illustrating history of the streets of Fort Worth was compiled this year by the Junior Historian Club under the direction of Dr. Kathryn Garrett, sponsor. It was prepared by Susie Allen, Marjorie Creswell, and artists Nell Bentley and Jessica Baggett.

The club was organized in 1945 for those students who are interested in Fort Worth's heritage.

Each member has undertaken a term project for the club. While the four girls worked on maps, Sammy Craig, Joan Gardner, Roland Jary, Doris Smith, Lou Stogner, and Joe Turner authored biographical sketches of early Fort Worth pioneers. These themes were entered in the state Junior Historian essay contest. The winning essay each year is printed in the Junior Historian magazine, a monthly periodical published by the University of Texas Press.

The preparation of Business Directories of Fort Worth in 1874 and 1875 was another of the club's accomplishments for the '53-'54 term. Jackie Burton, Sue Chollar, Kay Kent, Patsy Paschall, and Carolyn Satterwhite engineered this project.

John Cranz was responsible for the preparation of photo slides showing historic sites of Fort Worth.

Officers are Joe Turner, president; John Cranz, vice-president; Patsy Paschall, secretary; and Carolyn Satterwhite, treasurer.

'J' Pins Mirror AHHS' Best: Leaders, Scholars, Servers

Rome wasn't built in a day, as the saying goes, however, it took only four years to build firmly the foundations of the "J" Club—leadership, scholarship, service. These foundations in turn have made membership in the "J" Club one of the most coveted honors that can come to a Heightser.

Six months of careful planning prefaced the day of March 17, 1950, when the first 80 "J" Club members crossed the auditorium stage to receive their bronze pins for one year membership. That day was to begin a tradition of "J" days marked each year by higher requirements and increased membership.

A system of points was set up, giving each student the opportunity to strive toward goals in leadership, scholarship, and service to his school. Then from the amassed total points of each student the upper ten per cent of students from each of the three classes, sophomore, junior, and senior were chosen for membership in the "J" Club.

One student from each class was selected to speak on some phase of leadership, scholarship, or service on the "J" day program, and four officers were elected by the "J" Club members to head the club. Chosen as speakers for the four programs were Athletic Council presidents Mr. John Honts, Mr. J. A. Gooch, Mr. J. W. Murphree, and School Superintendent, Elden B. Busby.

The bronze, silver, and gold pins presented to each "J" Club member, for one, two, and three-year membership, are supplied by the Arlington Heights Athletic Council. This organization was one of the founders of the club.

From that day in 1950, annual "J" Club membership has made a gradual increase in proportion to the size of the classes until in 1953 there were 91 students awarded the honor of "J" Club membership.

The purpose of the "J" Club is to encourage students to make good scholastic records and to participate in school activities. It embodies in its motto "Leadership, Scholarship, and Service"—the very essence of Heights—its strength, its wisdom, its spirit.

J Club Officers and sponsors: Sue Guffey, Ann Parnell, Miss Katheryn Haden, Mr. Roy M. Stone, Betty Pruitt, and Clayton Brants, view the campus.

Modern Language Spain, Mexico, or France?

The forty members of the Modern Language Club have traveled vicariously from the floating gardens of Xochimilco to the Tuileres Gardens of Paris.

Sponsor Mrs. Norma Wells, who has traveled extensively in Europe and Mexico, has shown the members pictures and mementos of her trips and told them legends of historic places.

Skits in French and Spanish were prepared and given at Heights' Open House in the fall. The club sponsored a curio booth at the AY carnival in the spring.

Presiding over club activities is Melissa Furman.

Allied Youth AY Activities Top Year

Booming in membership and enthusiasm, the Allied Youth Post has put Heights in the national spotlight as a school full of students eager to learn the truth about alcohol and use this knowledge as a tool to build a better future.

AY'ers bounced through the busy year with a vigorous membership drive, football party, the annual male beauty contest, and regular meetings under the leadership of Ken Cooper, president, and assistants Jimmie Killman, Marjorie Creswell, Ronny White, and Miss Grace Becker, sponsor.

Representing Heights at the national convention at Buck Hill Falls were Ken Cooper, Marjorie Creswell, Jackie Burton, Curtis Sides and Miss Becker.

Work and Fun Climax Year for Choristers

AHHS choristers, students from three regular classes, had a full schedule of work and fun in this school year.

Highlighting the 1953-54 chorus schedule was the production of "Unto Us the Living", a choric drama with speaking and singing choirs presented by the music and speech departments, under the direction of Mrs. Mary White, chorus instructor, and Mr. Warren T. White, speech instructor.

The three chorus classes participated in the annual clinic at Texas Wesleyan College, the Christmas assembly, the All-City Chorus and Orchestra Festival, Baccalaureate, and Graduation exercises.

Music for the PTA meetings, the PTA tea, the Library convention, and the Senior Garden Party was furnished by the twelve girls in the Heights double sextet: Barbara Thompson, Carol Norman, Marilyn Maxwell, Barbara Harris, Margaret Chiles, Carol Stoughton, Mildred Meili, Mary Carole Haupt, and Marilyn Doss. Piano accompanists were Gretchen Chappell and Barbara Miller.

On the "fun" schedule was a party in the fall and the annual spring swimming party which climaxed the year.

Bop to Beethoven

Band, Orchestra Entertain Heights

Although bop has Heightsters, the "Heights 'Boogie," played by the rhythm lovin' AHHS band, still brings cheers from admiring Jackets.

Band members musically cheer the fighting Jackets on in eight city and bi-district pigskin bussles, strutted their stuff in the Armistice Day and Stock Show parades, and entertained visitors at Open House.

On the spring schedule were concerts at Monnig and Stripling Jr. Highs, All-City Band Festival, the annual band program, Solo and Ensemble Night, and in state competition at the TCU Festival.

With semi-classical and classical numbers highlighting their programs, the school orchestra played at the AY, Christmas, and P-TA programs, and at the Arlington Heights Night Program, featuring the combined orchestras of AHHS, Stripling, and Monnig.

The string ensemble of the orchestra played five engagements, including P-TA, Open House, Stripling and Monnig, elementary schools, and the annual All-City P-TA Style Show.

Graduation exercises will write finis to another successful year for those two Yellow Jacket groups whose ambition and loyalty will continue to add more and more accomplishments and to attain even higher goals in the field of music.

ROTC

This year's ROTC corps was the largest in the history of the school—over 160 cadets marched together during common drill periods. Because of the largest enrollment it was necessary to have five companies—that's also a new record.

A new commandant, M/Sgt. Melvin B. Russell, took over the administrative duties in December, assisted by M/Sgt. Nylin B. Lancaster. Together they were responsible for the instruction of cadets, molding a top-flight drill team and shaping a precision rifle team.

Altogether there were 19 cadet officers to lead the corps this year. Roland Jary was battalion commander; Paul Dearmin, executive officer; Dale Castleman, adjutant; Robert Loughridge, operations officer; and Bob Smith and Bill Richards alternated as supply officer.

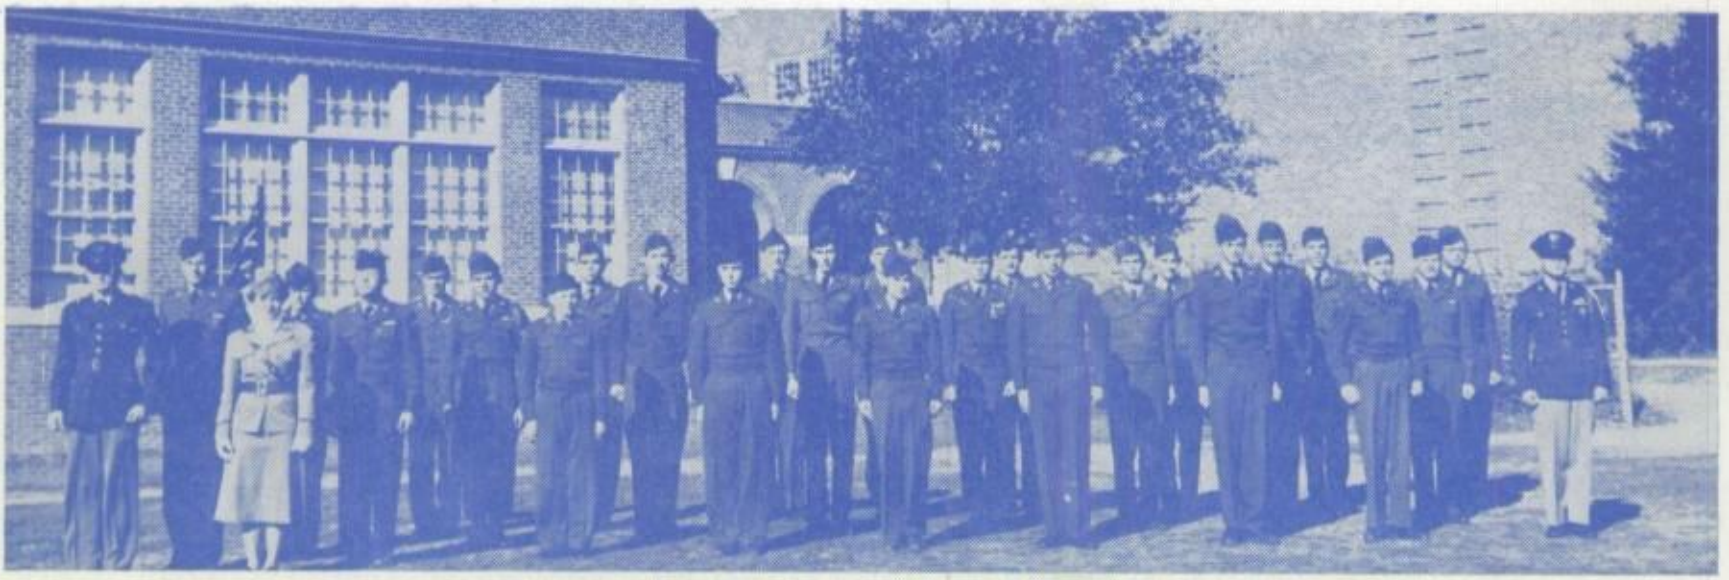

ROTC Beauties are JoAnna Cone, Betty Pruitt, Carolyn Pugh, Georgia Wall, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, faculty sponsor, Norma Scott, Sissy Hill, Helen DeWitt.

Busby Installs Council Officers

It is particularly fitting that we should install our student officers during American Week, noted Mr. Busby, principal, at the ceremony.

Mr. Busby, who presided, installed the student body officers: Martha Lee, president; and Patricia, vice president.

The tradition, continued by Mr. Busby, officers and the Neely, president.

Mike then gave the oath of office and altered.

In his speech, Mike, new president of the council, announced the homecoming, Homecoming Day, Week.

"I urge all of you to give your best to the school," he said, "and to the community."

Victory Pre As Exes Invade

AHHS has rolled out the royal rugs for the "here today, gone tomorrow" exes. Honoring the traditional Homecoming Day, the Student Council and the student body have prepared a special victory agenda.

An assembly and pep rally of students and exes will be held in the auditorium this afternoon after lunch. Following the game tonight, the gym will constitute

Jackets Set 6-4 Record In 1953 Gridiron Season

When the final gun sounded on the '53 gridiron season, the Arlington Heights Yellow Jackets had won six games and lost four in a season sparked by the enthusiasm of the student body and the fight-to-the-finish spirit of the team.

The 1953 season opener saw the Hoganmen hand the Austin Maroons a 12-7 defeat.

With Gainesville as the next scene of battle, the Jackets put a fighting Leopard team on the short end of a 20-19 score.

In a fast moving game, the powerful Sunset eleven of Dallas handed AHHS its first defeat, 21-19.

Making a quick comeback, the Jackets surprised Highland Park of Dallas with a 41-12 victory.

Eight busloads of Heightsters made the school-sponsored trip to Tyler to see the Jacket eleven overcome 14-20 in a hard-fought battle.

In the first conference game Heights whipped Tech 41-7, but bowed to the Steers of North Side 37-12 the next week.

The Jackets grabbed their fifth win with a 33-13 score against Carter.

The Paschal Panthers put a damper on Homecoming festivities and extinguished Arlington Heights' title hopes by piling up a 51-13 tally.

In a finale that kept spectators on the edge of their seats, the Jackets upset Poly Parrots 34-27, handing the city crown to Paschal.

'B' Team Ties for Second In 1954 City Crown Race

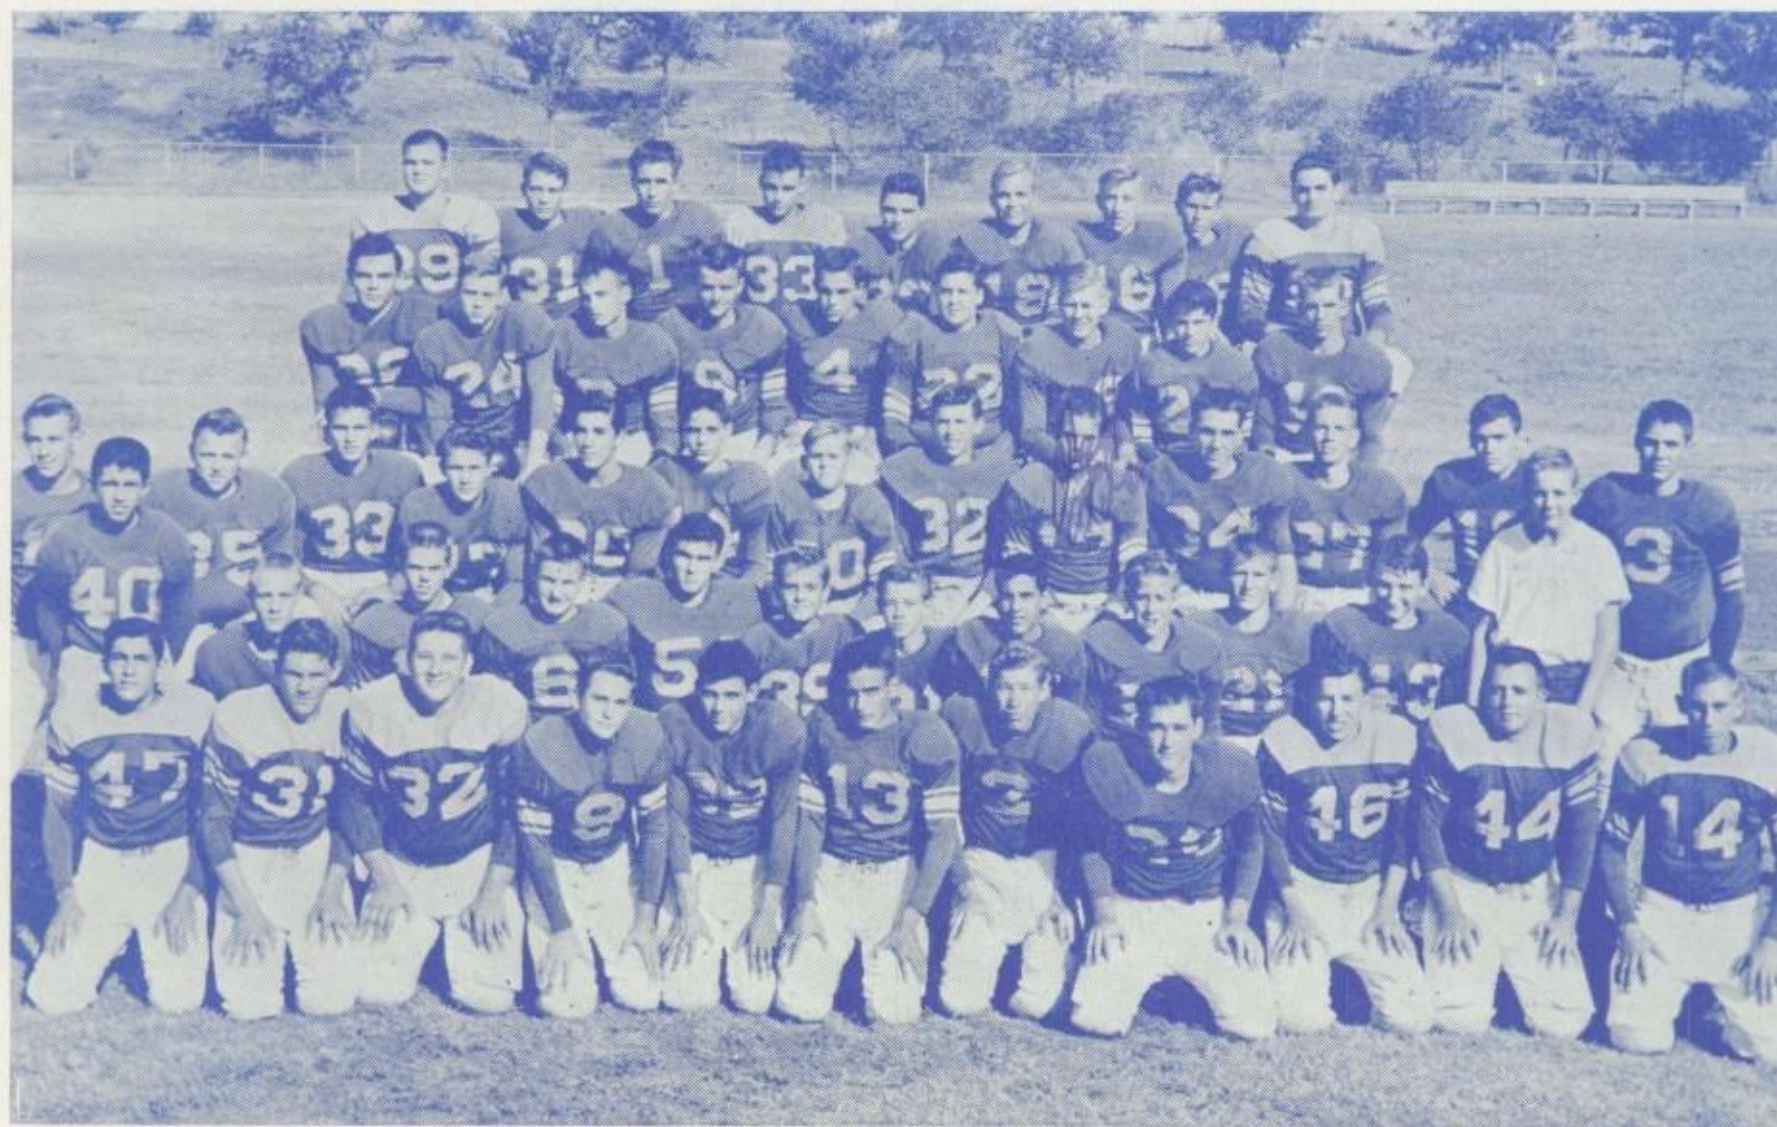

The Yellow Jacket "B" team, coached by Nick Ruggieri and Joe Abbey, finished the 1953 football season with four wins and three losses.

Defeating Paschal and Carter twice, they were overcome by North Side in one tilt and by Poly in two, to finish in a three-way tie for second in the race for the "B" Team city crown.

Coaches Nick Ruggieri and Joe Abbey survey the 'B' team workouts with beaming admiration of a season's record.

Cagemen Win 7, Lose 11 In 1954 Roundball Play

What the 1954 roundballers lacked in experience, they made up for in spirit. It was this spirit that turned in several basketball thrillers.

In pre-conference games, Heights had its hands full with some of the strongest teams in the state. AHHS entered the city conference with a 3-6 record, and lost one more game before they exploded against Poly and Technical. The Jacket cagemen club took second place for three weeks before they were overcome by Carter and Poly. Many thrills were furnished by the Yellow Jacket five as they ended the conference with a 4-5 total and a 7-11 record for the season.

AHHS Track Team Tries For Second City Crown

Paced by speedster and captain Ronny White, the largest track team in Arlington Heights history participated in several out-of-town track meets, sharpening up for their defense of the district championship in April. Many of the thinclads began conditioning themselves months before the season began. Thus the Jackets possessed strength and ability in practically every event—track and field.

Under the leadership and guidance of Coach Johnny Stovall, the team has possibilities of capturing the district crown two years in succession.

First Row: Robert Brooks, Frank Clemens, George Moore, Tommy McIlheran, Bruce Cox, Kent Tillbury, Earl Ramsey, Joe Matthews, Jimmy Shannon, R. B. AHHS Golfers Vie For Awards As Conference Play Begins

With the coming of spring, a young man's fancy, in this case, turns to golf.

Seven boys reported for practice of the Jacket golf team in hopes of being one of the four on the first team.

After days of practice and trials, Ronnie Honeycutt, David Henderson, Marvin Elder, and Jerry Coates were picked as the first team. Ronnie and Marvin were returning lettermen from last year's team, and were medalists in the city. The three alternates that rounded the team were Gay Shiplet, Tom Gilmore and Monroe Mitchella.

Working out with their coach, N. J. Hogan, the boys have high hopes of winning places in the city and state again this season.

Medalist of '53, Ronnie Honeycutt practices a drive.

Baseball

Hardball Teamsters Start '54 Season With Bang

With one of the strongest teams in several years, AHHS is out looking for a baseball championship. The squad of forty contains nine returning lettermen. Three of the lettermen are pitchers, which should be a good sign. The infield is completely blanketed by veterans Al Blakes, Gene Haney, Jackson Hill, and Jack Newsome. Other lettermen include Norman Ashley, Jerry Culver, Jim Hill, Roy Menge, and Johnny Robertson.

Coach Ruggieri has confidence in his team and states, "If hard work will win games, we will win our share."

- First Row:* Bill Hall, manager, Bob James, Jackson Hill, Jim Hill, Roy Menge, Gene Haney, Jerry Culver, Don Wilkinson, Jim Graves, Norman Ashley. Second Row: Al Blakes, Joe White, Lonny Floyd, Sammy Craig, Buddy Neighbors, Nick Georges, Roy Wilkes, Johnny Robertson, Donald Weeks, Max Matthews, Jack Newsome. Third Row: Johnny Waller, Edwin Leudtke, Joe O'Neal, Teddy Collins, Mike Foster, Leon Hill, Billy Tullous, Bill Flourney, Doug Dysert. Fourth Row: Tommy Stephenson, Tommy Huddleston, Ernest Holmes, Bill McClure, Doug Carroll, David Slack, Larry Threldkeld, Charles Binford.

Tennis Teams Prepare for City Competition

Arlington Heights tennis team is out once again practicing their backhands and repairing their rackets.

Teamsters, under the instruction of Mrs. Martha Thomas and Coach Joe Abbey, engage in competition with other schools so as to "get in practice" for the city tournament held in April.

Matches with Diamond Hill, Poly, Tech and Carter show Heights progress and promise a successful team.

Chosen from a large group, remain for the boy's team, Paul Hemphill, Lynn Wallace, Clarence Emms, Bobby Smith, Curtis Sides, and Byron Parrish.

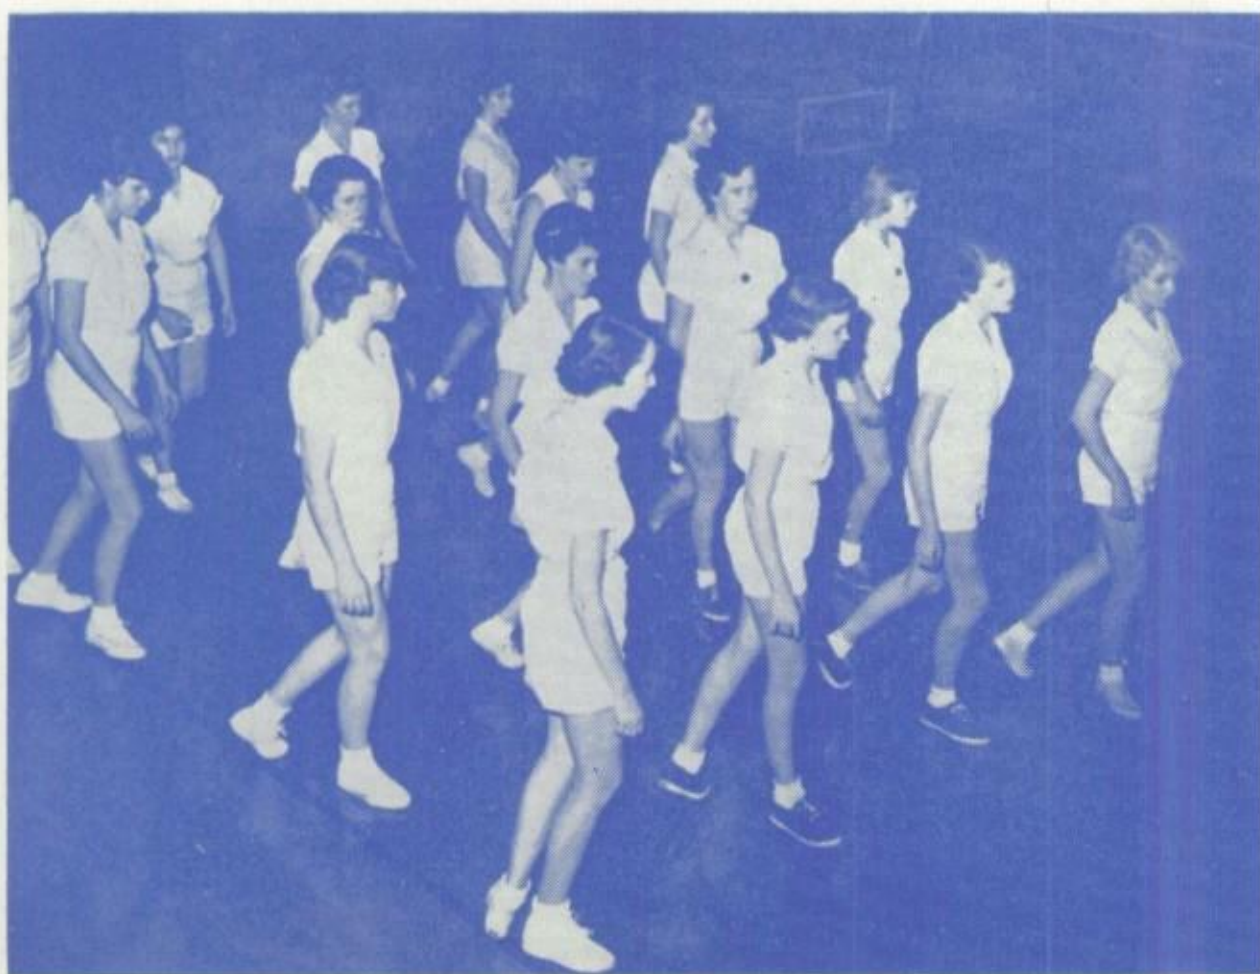

Representing the girls are Jan Goodman, Susie Allen, Linda Veltman and Lyn Clay.

It is hard to express and impossible for such a person as I, to put into words how much I cherish our friendship. I could never say, no matter if I had forever, how much I think of you. You are undoubtedly the best and most wonderful friend I have ever and will ever have. These are not just words either. They are felt deep down in the heart. I cherish each and every moment I have known you. We have had more fun together than I have ever known before. All the things we have done together, I shall always remember. I hope only the best is your future, as you spend it with Mike. Mike is a swell boy and will give you a happy lifetime ahead. As we go out from high school, I am reconciled from my sorrow of such, by the fact that we are going to TCU together. I know that will make my college years a little bit happier. I know we shall always be friends. At least I want it that way. I want us to always keep in connection. I can truthfully say I love you. May the best come to my sweetest friend ever.
